

C.W.W.Kannanagara Vidyalaya
Appreciation of English Literary Texts
First Term Evaluation

3 hours

Grade 11

- Answer Question I and Four others selecting one from each section – Poetry, Drama, Prose and Fiction

Note : Answer 5 Question Only

Part I

Section A – Answer all Questions

Read the given extracts and answer the question given below.

1. "His wings are clipped and his feet are tied, So he opens his throat tossing"
 - a. From which text are these lines taken ? Who wrote them ?
 - b. Whose wings are clipped ? and why?
 - c. What sort of song will he sing ?
2. "We'll sweat no more on scythe and rake, My bloody hands and I"
 - a. From which text are these lines taken ? who wrote them
 - b. Who refer to "we"
 - c. Why does he say "My bloody hands"
3. "In your arms I recall the days gone by Nothing bothered me: I was perfectly at ease in the vast sky"
 - a. From which text are these line taken ? Who wrote it ?
 - b. Who is the speaker and what is the speaker's mood ?
 - c. What is the relationship of the speaker with the sky ?
4. "I am afraid it will not go with my dress" She answered, ?"
 - a. From which text are these lines taken ? who is the writer
 - b. Who is she and with whom she's speaking with ?
 - c. What sort of person is "She"
5. I offered him a crumb, and he unrolled his feathers and rowed him softer home"
 - a. From which text are these lines taken? who wrote them ?
 - b. Who is "I" who is "he"
 - c. What the cause for his reaction ?
6. "I am not accustomed to listen to such expressions or to such a tone of voice. I want to hear no more"
 - a. From which work are these lines taken ? who is the writer ?
 - b. Who utters these words to whom ?
 - c. What is the reason for the speaker to utter words like this Section B – Answer the questions after reading the following passage

"O my poor boy thy foolish reading hath wrought its woeful work at last, and ta'en thy wit away. An' why didst thou cleave to it when I so warn'd thee' ganst, it? Thou'st broke thy mother's heart.

The prince looked into her face and said gently.

Thy son is well, and hath not lost his wits, good dame. Comfort thee: let me to the palace where he is, and straightway will the king my father restore him to thee.

1. What is the situation given in the passage? who are the speakers?
2. Describe the underlined phrases in your words

i.

ii.

3. What truth is hidden in the passage according to your point of view?

Part II

Poetry

(Answer one question only)

1. The poet creates a vivid picture in the readers mind by showing false social values and different perspectives of social standards in the poem Richard Cory Comment .
2. Through the poem " I know why the caged bird sings", the poet speaks about social discrimination in many ways Comment on this statement referring to the poem.

Prose

(Answer one question only)

1. Nicholas in the "Lumber Room" represents innocent and imaginative nature of children Would you agree? support your answer with proper examples from the text
2. Which character do you like most in the "Nightingale and the Rose" Discuss with reference to the text
3. Put forward the instances which you can introduce Sangakkara as a great leader, a great Sri Lankan and a great humanist referring to the extract taken from his speech

Drama

(Answer one question only)

1. What are the themes in the play " Twilight of a crane" comment
2. Discuss the two main characters of the play "The Bear"

Fiction

(Answer the question)

1. Both boys in the novel get first hand life experience which helps to understand the reality in life Comment on this statement referring to the novel Prince and the pauper .